

Date	Lions/Kindergarten	Tigers/1 st Grade	Wolves/2 nd Grade	Bears/3 rd Grade	Webelos/4 th /5 th Grade	Arrow of Light
May 14th	Lions Honor	Good Knight	Howling at the Moon	Paws for Action	Into the Woods Part 1	Earth Rocks!
Objective	Learn fundamentals of being a Scout! Cub Scout Sign, Motto, and Salute	This adventure uses the history and stories of Knights to teach youth how to be brave and courteous through fun activities.	Teach Wolves how to communicate through an obstacle course and an opportunity to write their own skit!	Learn about your community while participating in activities such as finger printing!	Learn about the outside world, forests and plants.	Learning about the science of geology Identifying and testing rocks and minerals Becoming aware of geological materials and landmarks Performing geological investigations while upholding the values of Leave No Trace
May 21st	Ready, Set, Grow	Backyard Jungle	Germs Alive	Critter Care	Art Explosion	Build Your Hero
Objective	Demonstrating basic gardening skills and understanding different types of gardens. Exploring where some food comes from	Tigers will learn that there are many types of living things that people coexist with. All animals, plants, and insects have a purpose in our environment. It is everyone's duty to be mindful of other creatures' habitats.	Teaching Wolves in a fun way on how to Properly Wash Hands and What Germs "Look" Like.	Learn how to care for pets and how pets help people in assistance	Create fun, new art projects at home!	Through this adventure, Webelos Scouts will discover what being a "hero" means to them as well as the community they live in. Boys will meet local heroes and learn about everyday heroism around the world. Each Scout will also imagine his own superhero and create a story of how that hero helps others.
May 28th	Fun on the Run	Magical Mysteries	Call of the Wild	Beat of the Drum	Build It	Sportsman
Objective	Have fun learning to exercise and eat healthy to keep our bodies strong!	This adventure helps Tigers explore how things work. Tigers and their adult partners will learn about cracking codes and solving mysteries, as well as discover how science helps us solve problems.	Introduce camping skills and promote preparedness for challenges outdoors.	Learn about Native American customs including how to make certain cultural crafts.	Learn how to build new objects and be creative!	Sports are all about honesty, respect, fair play, and being physically fit. Playing a sport will build a Webelos Scout's body and improve their skills—and learning to play more than one sport will help develop a lifelong habit of physical activity.

June 4th	Mountain Lion Adventure	Family Stories	Grow Something	Robotics	Game Design	Looking Back, Looking Forward
Objective	Learn about the natural environment around us and how to respect mother earth!	This adventure will help Tigers learn about their families and their heritage	Learn about plants and how to garden.	How different types of robots are used then create your own simple robotic figures	Learn about Game Design and How to Create your own computerized systems.	Seeing how actions of the past have influenced the present Understanding that they can help make productive changes in the future
June 11th	Animal Kingdom	Floats and Boats	Council Fire	Bear Picnic Basket	Special Episode from National Geographic: Fabric Design	Building a Better Way
Objective	Learn how to understand and respect community resources. Develop a sense of community awareness and responsibility Participate in an activity demonstrating service to others	This adventure will teach Tigers about different types of boats, how to build a boat using recycled materials, and how to stay safe on the water.	Build citizenship by learning more about the community and doing service.	Learn basic skills and safety practices when cooking inside or outside. Select, prepare and perfect their own recipes.	A guided tour of the impact of fabric in our world and history. An experiment to see how fabrics are made and how we can make them	The wide range of activities in this adventure will help Webelos Scouts become strong, participating citizens in their communities, their nation, and the world at large.
June 18th	Build it Up, Knock it Down	Earn Your Stripes	Finding Your Way	Roaring Laughter	Adventures in Science	Into the Woods Part 2 Additional Learning
Objective	Learning that life is a series of choices Understanding that mistakes can happen or things may not go as	Helping others provides the opportunity to build self-esteem, give goodwill, and create a cheerful attitude.	Knowing What Direction You Are Going In Life Will Prevent You	Have fun learning how to make your friends and family smile!	Are you a scientist at heart? Try fun science experiments and more!	In this adventure, Scouts will learn to identify plants and trees and how they differ in locations around the world. They will gain knowledge about ecosystems planned, but it is important to keep going and keep trying It's easier to knock something or somebody down than it is to build it (him or her) up.		from Getting Lost. Learning how to use a compass.			and the importance of conserving our natural resources

June 25th	King of the Jungle	Stories in Shape	Running with the Pack	A World of Sound	Maestro	Project Family
Objective	Learning what it means to be a good citizen, leader, and learning the parts of a flag ceremony	This adventure will engage the Tigers' imaginations and creativity as they work on some simple art projects that do not require traditional art skills.	Fun activities teaching youth how to exercise and stay healthy!	Learn about other cultures and make new instruments	Learn about music and how to make it!	There are many different kinds of families, related by birth, marriage, or adoption. Through the Project Family adventure, Webelos Scouts will experience new ways of taking part in family life and showing their family members that they love and care for them.
July 2nd	Pick My Path	Tigers in the Wild	Paws on the Path	Forensics	Movie Making	Duty to God and You
Objective	Learning how to be a friend, making choices and understanding how the outcomes affect us, learning acceptable responses to emotion, learning leadership by	Tigers will learn how to put the "outing" in Scouting with this outdoor adventure. They will start to develop an understanding of outdoor ethics as they are introduced to many skills that will be important throughout their Scouting careers.	Develop their hiking skills and introduces navigation.	Learn about being observant, looking for clues	Learn how to create a live action movie!	A Scout is reverent. He is reverent toward God. He is faithful in his religious duties and respects the convictions of others in matters of custom and religion. The BSA Statement of Religious Principle "maintains that no member can grow into the best kind of citizen without teaching a game to someone					recognizing an obligation to God." This adventure provides each Webelos Scout an opportunity to learn about and practice his religious faith.

July 9th	I'll Do It Myself	Tiger Bites	Motor Away	Super Science	Fix It	Aware and Care
Objective	Learning skills by watching older siblings or adult parents, learning to take care of themselves and their personal belongings, and increased autonomy among Lion Scouts	This adventure will introduce or reinforce healthy eating habits, including making the right food choices and practicing good hygiene. Activities will also focus on good manners at mealtime. In addition, the adventure will give each Tiger an opportunity to perform a useful service for their family.	Learn about boats, cars, and planes!	Create amazing reactions in fun investigations exploring static electricity, oil and water, sinking v floating, and color morphing	Learn how to fix bicycles and cars at home.	Everyone has challenges—and understanding the challenges of others leads to acceptance. In this adventure, Webelos Scouts will learn firsthand how people live with disabilities that affect their sight, hearing, dexterity, and mobility; with this new understanding, they can help educate their peers and prevent the hurtful exclusion of others
July 16th	Gizmos and Gadgets	Team Tiger	Collections and Hobbies	Bear Necessities		Scouting Adventure
Objective	Learn about gadgets and time saving devices, along with learning about gizmos designed just for fun	This adventure will introduce Tigers to the concept of teamwork and also to the idea that—even at a young age—they can make a difference in the world. Some of the activities in this adventure are home-based and involve the family and/or the adult partner, and others are to be performed with the den.	Learn about starting a hobby and creating collections!	Introduce new outdoor skills		This Arrow of Light adventure will provide Scouts with an introduction to Boy Scouting, Scout skills, and Scout spirit. Webelos Scouts will attend a troop meeting and accompany a troop on a campout or an outdoor activity.

